

This story started in a beautiful and big city. A girl lived there; this girl didn't have any friends. But one day she decided to sign up for dance lessons. That was her dream.

She was very bad at first, but as time went on the girl started to become better and she progressed a lot.

Thanks to her hard work, she could participate in championships. She lost some, she won some, but she always followed her dreams.

Berta Martín - Crocodiles A1